1	DHS000196-317	9/20/2010-10/4/2010	Email string between Margo Schlanger, DHS Office of Civil Rights and Civil Liberties and David Venturella, ICE Assistant Director-Secure Communities, where she seeks clarity on the opt-out policy. In one place, M. Schlanger asks if her anonymous quote to the Washington Post was accurate: "The only way a local jurisdiction could opt out of the program is if a state refused to send fingerprints to the FBI." She expresses concerns that ICE's credibility is undermined with NGOs with the mixed messages. (see DHS000200-201, Oct. 4, 2010). Elsewhere, Margo Schlanger and David Venturella discuss the confusing public message and whether the Lofgren letter can be disclosed publically. Andrew Strait, chief public engagement officer tells Schlanger not to disclose contents of Lofgen letter to NGOs, even though it is available on a website. (see DHS000268-295, Sept. 20, 2010)	Lofgren Letter
